EMMITSBURG, MD – The U.S. Fire Service will honor two firefighters, who died in the line of duty, from Indiana during the 38th National Fallen Firefighters Memorial Service on Sunday, October 6, 2019. They are among the 92 firefighters who died in the line of duty in 2018 and 27 firefighters who died in previous years who will be remembered at the official national service at the National Fire Academy in Emmitsburg, Maryland.

Sergeant John C. Butler, age 52, of the Lafayette Fire Department, died on February 28, 2018, from an illness related to his fire service work.

Firefighter Jeffrey D. Holt, age 60, of the Lawrence Fire Department, died on April 30, 2018, immediately after completing his annual physical assessment.

Their names will be added to the National Fallen Firefighters Memorial on the Academy grounds. The national tribute is sponsored by the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation (NFFF) and the Department of Homeland Security's U.S. Fire Administration.

More than 5,000 people, including families, friends, members of Congress, Administration officials and firefighters are expected to attend on Sunday. Firefighter Honor Guards and Pipe & Drum units from across the U.S. will participate in this national remembrance.
