

BENEFIT BAZAAR AT CRANSTON HEIGHTS

Proceeds to be Used to Repair Fire Engine Damaged in Accident.

(Special to Every Evening.)

Cranston Heights, Feb. 23.—Plans have been completed for the benefit bazaar to be given in the Cranston Heights Fire House on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, March 4, 5 and 6, for the repair fund for the engine which was demolished in the Marshallton accident. Recent donations to that fund include one of $17 from the Marshallton Civic Club, and $5 from Mrs. M. K. Hopkins, 1397 King street. On Thursday night, there will be a musical program by the Continental Fibre Co.'s Band of Newark, the members of which will donate their services for that evening.

The Cranston Heights Band, under the leadership of Willard D. Foulk, will give the musical program at the bazaar on Friday and Saturday evenings. Walter N. Gregg, George F. McConnell and J. S. Smith are in charge of the tickets for the child's automobile, and the kitchen table, which are to be awarded to the lucky ticket holders on the closing night.

The general chairman of the bazaar, Walter N. Gregg, has announced the committees in charge of the various booths, as follows: Blankets, A. H. Williams, Clarence M. Jones, A. Chiffine; aluminum ware, Thomas Ainsworth, Alfred Williams; candy, George Stewart, Harry McConnell; hot dogs, William Blake, Frank Milbourne; ice cream, Harvey Pierson, Walter Peters. The cake and fancy work table will be in charge of the Ladies' Auxiliary, Mrs. Ernest Lutz, president; assisting, Mrs. Lutz will be, Mrs. R. S. Cross, Mrs. H. E. Sayers, Mrs. W. Gregg, Mrs. C. R. Jones and Mrs. J. Greenwood.

Friends of the firemen who were injured in the accident which demolished the engine will be glad to know of the recovery of the men, who are, R. S. Cross, chief; James Greenwood, James E. King and Leonard Hook. The driver of the machine, LeRoy Hill, is still in the Physicians' and Surgeons Hospital, and will be there for several more weeks. Dr. William Pennimore, honorary surgeon of the New Castle County Volunteer Firemen's Association is attending the firemen, donating his services.

A dozen or more of the Cranston Heights firemen attended the housing of the Aetna Fire Company's new engine at Newark on Saturday afternoon. On Tuesday, R. S. Cross and George Haigh will go to Dover to attend the meeting of the Delaware State Firemen's Association relative to the question of firemen's insurance.
